First surprises

The brand new Dutch U17 Girls beat GBR 13:11, and GER beat the current champion AUT. More excitement comes tomorrow, when the classic GER-GBR match takes place. In U17 open, the closest match was seed 3 FRA beating seed 5 AUT, but subsequently AUT beat #2 seed Israel. ISR had started with a 15:09 victory over SWE. So GBR is in the lead as the only teams with 2 wins, followed by FRA, AUT, GER, ISR, SWE and IRE.

Germany Junior Women and Junior Open started with a 17:0 victory each, but the open team then faced a fierce Israel, who took the lead to 6:5. Final score, after amazing scenes from both teams, was 17:12 for Germany. GBR and FRA open go undefeated, but the Swedes gave FRA one hell of a match, ending 14:15. Now IRE faces FRA in the morning, hoping to force them into a 3 way tie in pool C. The Czech Republic surprized Italy 17:09, an subsequently also beat FIN 17:03.

CZE women did likewise, beating GBR and ISR. FRA women had to bow to newcomer AUT 12:16, and Latvia had a slow 1:7 start against Finland, so FIN won 17:11. GER seems the team to beat, after their clear two victories today.

Watch your stuff – and keep the fields clean

So far, nothing has been reported stolen. But this EYUC is a big event. So keep your eyes open, watch your stuff. Also: all captains please tell your team to leave the sideline clean after your game.

Miracles happen

Missed stuff re-appeared! Two miracles happened on Tuesday: Though having ordered two pallets of chalk the TOC ran out of chalk. It had been delivered, but nobody knew where. Finally it was found at another ASV pitch of Rugby somewhere else in town.

EYUC2012: ITA second place, ISR 3rd

There was a slight error in the player booklet: In Dublin 2012, Italy took 2nd place in U17 open, Israel got the bronze medal.

Great lunch at ASV stadium

There is warm and cold food available at the ASV stadium from 11:30 every day; soup, sandwiches or BBQ etc.

Best wishes

Two Finnish players, an Israeli and a Slovak player got injured today and had to be taken to the hospital. The Finnish girl broke a finger, two boys broke a foot and the other one had got a knee in the stomach. We send the best wishes to these players and to everybody else who now has small aches and pains!
