Junior Divisions: Quarters ahead!

In Junior Open the first round is over (see below). Especially Belgium had a hard fight in the decisive game against Russia with many discussions and even a Spirit timeout. Other very tough games were Switzerland vs. Israel with the Swiss back at half time 4:9 and still winning with a great comeback 13:11, and Finland vs. Italy with a Finnish victory with the universe point to 15:14, just like Great Britain vs. Czech Republic after the Czechs leading in the first half.

In Junior women two very close games were Finland vs. Austria ending with a lucky 13:12 victory for the Austrians, and Ireland vs. Israel as well with a 13:12 victory for Ireland, after being back already 7:11. In the evening, two nailbiters amazed the crowd: Italy took on France and was safely up 12:09 when the time was capped. France fought back bravely to 13:11, but France ultimately scored. The even hotter game on the next field was neighbouring Latvia and Russia, with a full sideline of Ireland and many others. Trading points all the way into the cap, Latvia won 14:13. Immediately after this, Ireland challenged their big sisters from Great Britain. Huge sidelines cheered Ireland to a historic 15:12 victory.

Today the Junior Women matches Russia vs. Finland should decide for the fourth place in Pool B just like the one Israel vs. Great Britain in Pool A.

Impressive plays in U17 divisions

Germany is the team to beat in the U17 Girls division after four wins in four plays. The Dutch tyro team (with four overage players) ended up second in the pool, but is not allowed to reach the semi, though. It is seeded down to five and today will face Austria and France again, whereas Great Britain and Germany meet again today after their showcase game last night. In the U17 Open round robin Great Britain currently is no. 1 without defeat, followed by Germany, Sweden and Belgium. Because Sweden U17 Open is a tyro team as well it may not reach the semi and Austria has got best chances to get there right now. The ultimate clash happened on field 2, Israel vs. France. A hot and highly emotional game went all the way to universe, with several disputed calls and discussions. It went to Israel in Universe point 12:11, after the last point had been called back twice. Top games today will be Germany vs. France and Great Britain vs. Austria.
